CIB Privacy Policy General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Stay part of CIB, update on privacy policy

Data Protection and Privacy is a top priority for us at CIB.

Upcoming legislation, the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) provides a new set of rules that will reshape the way we collect, use, and store your data.

One of CIB's primary goals is to stimulate and facilitate information exchange between governmental research institutes in the building and construction sector.

To facilitate this, we regularly send email newsletters and articles in the indicated area of expertise or interest of the members and contacts. Each member or contact can indicate its area of interest and expertise.

The member or contact can opt-out of this mailing at any time, by pressing the unsubscribe button in the email or send an email to secretariat@cibworld.nl.
