

CIB-W101 “Spatial Planning and Infrastructure Development”

Programme

- Wednesday, 12 May, 2010, 10:00 – 13:00, at Studio 2, the Lowry, Salford Quays, UK

1. Keynote Speech

“Urban Regeneration in Greater Manchester

Prof. Michael Hebbert

The University of Manchester, School of Environment and Development

2. Presentation & Discussion

1. Upgrading the City Quality of Shanghai Making Use of the 2010 World Expo Opportunity
Raymond W M Wong, City University of Hong Kong
2. Effects of Double Tracked Planning Approach for Urban Regeneration
Dr. Tatsuo Akashi, National Institute for Land and Infrastructure Management, Japan
3. Aesthetic Perception and Judgement
Morten Gjerde, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand
Coffee Break
4. Trade-offs in Infrastructure Investment Decisions between Financial and Public Interests
D. F. J. Schraven, University of Twente, Netherland
5. City Planning Theory: Incentive Compatible Planning System
Prof. Yasushi Asami, The University of Tokyo, Japan
6. Responding to Sustainability Challenge and Cost Implications in Highway Construction Projects, Kai Chen Goh, Queensland University of Technology, Australia

3. Working Commission Annual Meeting

- Thursday, 13 May, 2010, 14:00 – 15:30 at Small lecture room 2 with W110

Postgraduate Workshop

1. User Activity Simulation Model for the Improvement of Space Planning in Office Buildings
Shen W & Shen Q, the Hong Kong Polytechnic University, China
2. Water Towers, Landscape, Project and Utopia,
Davide Mattighello, University of Udine, Italy
3. An Analysis of the Applicability of Environmental and Urban Assessment Methods: the Case of the Fazenda Tizo Park in Sao Paulo
Iara Negreiros, Alex Kenya Abiko, F. Cardoso, University of São Paulo, Brazil
4. Simulation and Visualization Tools in Collaborative Urban Planning
Léon Olde Scholtenhuis, University of Twente, Netherlands